Part A: Recipient

Name

Admiral Taverns Limited

To be served on the Designated Premises Supervisor named responsible Mr Peter Howard.

Trading as

The Bailey

Address

12 Hereford Road, Abergavenny, Monmouthshire, NP7 5PR

Part B: Relating to

The Bailey, 12 Hereford Road, Abergavenny, Monmouthshire, NP7 5PR

Part C: Basis for Service

This Premises Improvement Notice is served under Schedule 5(1) of The Health Protection (Coronavirus, Restrictions) (No. 2) (Wales) Regulations 2020 (as amended) (the Regulations).

I, Leigh Beach designated as a relevant person for the purposes of the Regulations by Monmouthshire County Council consider that you are a person responsible for the premises stated in Part B and that you have not complied with your obligations imposed under regulation 12 of the Health Protection (Coronavirus, Restrictions) (No. 2) (Wales) Regulations 2020 to minimise the risk of exposure to coronavirus at the premises.

Part D: Risk of Exposure

The basis for my decision are, evidence is attached and has been obtained by officer inspection on the 26th September 2020 to demonstrate;

- That customers are gathering and socialising in the outdoor beer garden.
 - Customers are standing to consume alcohol and are not consuming at a table.
 - Customers are ordering beverages from the bar area.
 - Customers are provided/served alcohol from the bar.
 - Customers are less than 2 metres from other households and not maintaining social distancing requirements when on the premises.
 - Customers are standing and gathering around customers who are seated on benches in the beer garden/car park area.
 - The one way system designed at the premises is not being implemented by staff or used by customers.
 - No customers are wearing face coverings when walking around the premises to use the toilet facilities.

- During officer inspection, 20/09/2020 you failed to control customers who were not following the regulations or covid-19 secure procedures provided in the Bailey Covid-19 Risk Assessment and confirmed you struggle when busy.

Part E: Action Required

This Premises Improvement Notice requires;

- That you and staff take all reasonable measures to ensure customers maintain social distancing when on the premises.
- That you and staff refuse to serve customers at the bar and request all customers remain seated to order and receive food or drink service.
- That you and staff ensure customers do not gather in groups on the premises or congregate around singular benches over and above the extended four household regulations provided in Wales.
- That you and staff ensure face coverings are used by staff and members of the public when in public areas of the premises, unless exempt such as sat down to eat or drink.
- That you and staff take reasonable measures to ensure customers are aware of the one way walking system and customers not follow the system be advised.
- You review the Covid-19 Risk Assessment and ensure compliance with the amended regulations regarding table service, face coverings and consumption when seated.
- You take all reasonable measures to ensure there is sufficient staff and/or security to manage the premises and remove customers from the premises who fail to comply with the regulations and premises requirements to minimise risk of exposure to the virus.

These actions must be completed by Saturday 3rd October 2020.

Part F: Consequences of Non-compliance

Failure to comply with this Premises Improvement Notice, without reasonable excuse, is an offence punishable by a fine on summary conviction in a Magistrates' Court.

Part G: Challenging This Compliance Notice

There is a right to appeal against this Premises Improvement Notice to the Magistrates' Court. An appeal can be made:

- By way of complaint for an order, and in accordance with the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980, and
- Within 7 days after the day that this notice is issued.

A Magistrates' Court may allow an appeal outside of the time limit stated above where they are satisfied that there is a good reason for the failure to appeal before the expiry of the stated period.

A Magistrates' Court may suspend the effect of this notice pending the determination of an appeal.

Part H: Publicising This Notice

Once served, a copy of this notice and a statutory sign will be affixed in a prominent position near every entrance to the premises (to which the notice applies). A copy will also be published on the Council's website. The notice and statutory sign must remain in place while the notice has effect and anyone who, without reasonable excuse, removes, obscures or damages the notice or sign commits an offence.

Notes

5. Appeals

1. A person to whom a premises improvement notice or premises closure notice is issued may appeal to a magistrates' court against the notice.
2. An appeal must be made:
 - a) By way of complaint for an order, and in accordance with the Magistrates' Courts Act, and
 - b) Within 7 days after the day the notice is issued.
3. But a magistrates' court may allow an appeal to be made after the expiry of the period mentioned in sub-paragraph (2)(b) if satisfied that there is a good reason for the failure to appeal before the expiry of that period (and for any delay in applying for permission to appeal out of time).
4. A magistrates' court may suspend the effect of a premises improvement notice or premises closure notice pending the determination of an appeal.
5. On an appeal against a premises improvement notice or premises closure notice, a magistrates' court may:
 - a) Confirm the decision to issue the notice
 - b) Direct that the notice is to cease to have effect
 - c) Modify the notice
 - d) Make such other order as the court considers appropriate.
6. If the magistrates' court directs that a notice is to cease to have effect or modifies a notice, it may order the local authority for the area in which the premises in question are situated to compensate the person responsible for the premises for loss suffered as the result of the issue of the notice.
7. An appeal by either party against the decision of a magistrates' court on an appeal under this section may be brought to the Crown Court.
8. On an appeal to the Crown Court, the Court may:
 - a) Confirm, vary or reverse the decision of the magistrates' court;
 - b) Remit the case to the magistrates' court to dispose of in accordance with directions given by the Crown Court.

Any person who without reasonable excuse, removes, obscures or damages a notice or sign required to be displayed under Schedule 5 of the Health Protection (Coronavirus, Restrictions) (No. 2) (Wales) Regulations 2020 commits an offence and may be issued with a fixed penalty notice or may be liable to a fine on conviction.
