Notes6. Issuing premises improvement and closure notices and terminations

(1) A premises improvement notice, premises closure notice or a termination of either of those types of notice is issued to a person by giving a copy of it in writing to that person.

(2) But where the person responsible for the premises to which the notice or termination relates is not on the premises when it is to be issued, the notice is to be treated as having been issued to that person if:

- a) A copy of it is given to any other person on the premises who appears to be responsible for any business or service being carried out on the premises, or
- b) If there is no such person on the premises when the notice is to be issued, a copy of the notice is placed in a conspicuous position on the premises.
