For each event a risk assessment is prepared and distributed to all those involved in the running of the event. Before the event the venue is checked to ensure it complies with the risk assessment prepared.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

Only a limited amount of alcohol is available. Alcohol is sold in small quantities. Alcohol is sold at the beginning of an event, and in the interval only.

Any members of the public not personally known to the members of the PCC, and who look possibly under the age of 25 is asked for ID under the challenge 25 policy.

c) Public safety

Events are very small never more than 100 people. Events are well stewarded. Care is taken to ensure that fire safety alerts and evacuation procedure is given clearly at the beginning of each event.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

We are a small rural community, we work in conjunction with our neighbours. The church is always closed after an event by 23:00.

e) The protection of children from harm

Children are always under the care of their parent/guardian or in the care of Tintern Church Lads and Girls Brigade who have well documented and implemented safeguarding procedures.

Right to work/Immigration status

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership which is not a limited liability partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways:

1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents which an applicant may provide to demonstrate their entitlement to work in the UK (which do not need to be certified) that are published on GOV.UK and in guidance issued under section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003.

2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a cop of original documents, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be shared digitally. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copies of documents as set out above.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.
