Dear

POSTAL VOTING REQUEST

I enclose as requested a form for you to apply to vote by post at elections.

Applications to register to vote for the General Election on 4th July 2024 must have been received by us by 5pm on the 19th June 2024. Postal votes set up after the 22nd May 2024 will be dispatched no later than the 26th June 2024. Please bear this date in mind when completing this application form. If this is not suitable for you, you may wish to consider appointing a proxy vote (where someone else votes on your behalf). Applications to arrange a proxy vote must reach us by 5pm on the 26th June 2024.

Please note that since the 31st October 2023, the requirements to apply for a postal vote for a UK poll and Welsh poll differ.

In order to request a postal vote for all elections you will need to provide us with your National Insurance number in the application overleaf. Failure to do so will mean that you can only vote by post in Local and Senedd elections regardless of the information you provide overleaf.

If you only wish to vote by post in the Senedd and local elections, provided you remain registered to vote at this address, you will still be able to vote in person at UK Parliamentary elections and Police and Crime Commissioner elections.

Once complete please return the application form to Electoral Registration, Monmouthshire County Council, County Hall, The Rhadyr, Usk, NP15 1GA. Application forms can also be sent via email as a scanned document or photograph to elections@monmouthshire.gov.uk

Kind Regards,
